SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 10 years.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

[X] The Court finds that the Defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse, and therefore suspends the mandatory drug testing requirement.

[X] The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer.

[] The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable).
If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional condition:

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health counseling and treatment as approved by the Probation Officer.

2. The defendant shall not use a computer with access to any "on-line computer service" at any location (including employment) without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network. Any approval by the Probation Officer shall be subject to any conditions which the Probation Officer may set from time to time. The Defendant shall not possess or use any data encryption technique or program. The Defendant shall consent to the Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of computer equipment to which Defendant has access, which may include retrieval and copying of all data from any computer and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with this condition, and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. The Defendant shall consent to having installed on any computer, at the Defendant's expense, any hardware or software to monitor the Defendant's computer use.

3. The Defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18 except in the presence of an adult who has been approved by the Probation Officer.

4. As directed by the Probation Officer, the Defendant shall comply with the registration requirements of the sex offender registration agency in any state where he resides, is employer, carries on a vocation or is a student

5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

It is my determination that the sentence imposed is sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2). I will note that I have considered all seven factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Recognizing that the guidelines and policy statements and amendments to the same referenced in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) (4) and (5) are advisory only, the Court finds their application in this case reasonable and appropriate under the totality of the circumstances.

- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 13) the defendant, as directed by the probation officer, shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.
- 14) the defendant shall refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
- 15) the defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug abuse, as directed by the Probation Office, until such time as you are released from the program by the Probation Officer.
- 16) the defendant shall notify the Court and U.S. Attorney's Office of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution, fines or special assessments.
- 17) the defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment schedule for payment of restitution, fines or special assessments.
- 18) the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any requested financial information.

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
